

ECONOMY

PROGRAM TITLE: NEWS 3
TYPE: News 3 @ 4
DATE OF BROADCAST: May 20, 2008
DESCRIPTION: The price of oil reached a record high today of more than $129 a barrel and gas prices continue to go up. It is now up 20 cents from one month ago. Imagine though, having to fill up a fire truck which runs on diesel fuel, which is even more expensive than regular gasoline.

PROGRAM TITLE: NEWS 3
TYPE: News 3 @ 4
DATE OF BROADCAST: May 20, 2008
DESCRIPTION: Believe it or not, you'll be paying less for power this summer. Today the Public Utilities Commission announced the decrease will take affect on August 1.

PROGRAM TITLE: NEWS 3
TYPE: News 3 @ 4
DATE OF BROADCAST: May 21, 2008
DESCRIPTION: With more mortgages about to reset, foreclosures are about to get worse – but help is out there. The saving you money team is in the call 3 center where housing counselors are waiting to take your questions.

PROGRAM TITLE: NEWS 3
TYPE: News 3 @ 4
DATE OF BROADCAST: May 22, 2008
DESCRIPTION: If you polish off your next carton of ice cream faster than usual it's not your imagination. Some companies are reducing the size of their containers without cutting the price.

PROGRAM TITLE: NEWS 3
TYPE: News 3 @ 5
DATE OF BROADCAST: May 21, 2008
DESCRIPTION: Even if you're not in danger of losing your home, when too many of your neighbors fall into foreclosure it drives down the value of your home.

PROGRAM TITLE: NEWS 3
TYPE: News 3 @ 5
DATE OF BROADCAST: May 22, 2008
DESCRIPTION: Big oil executives are on capital hill answering to lawmakers about their huge profits. Oil companies say they are not to blame. The president of BP says the solution should be a team effort with policymakers and consumers taking part.

PROGRAM TITLE: NEWS 3
TYPE: News 3 @ 24
DATE OF BROADCAST: May 24, 2008
DESCRIPTION: Prices are soaring for Memorial Day favorites like hot dogs and hamburgers. People will be paying more this holiday for what used to be a simple pleasure. The U.S Department of Agriculture says we will be paying even more next year.

PROGRAM TITLE: NEWS 3
TYPE: News 3 @ 11
DATE OF BROADCAST: May 25, 2008
DESCRIPTION: Economic troubles across the country could mean the worst summer for teen employment in more than a half century. Teen employment is expected to plunge to its lowest in 60 years.
